1 99 thieving guide: Mastering the Art of Thieving in OSRS

Thieving is an essential skill in Old School RuneScape (OSRS) that allows players to steal from NPCs, pickpocket, and unlock various treasures throughout Gielinor. For those looking to achieve the coveted level 99 in Thieving, having a solid guide is crucial. This article will provide a comprehensive 1 99 thieving guide, detailing the best training methods, requirements, and tips to maximize your efficiency and enjoyment while leveling up this skill.

Understanding Thieving

Thieving is a skill that allows players to acquire items and coins through various means. As you level up your Thieving skill, you gain access to more advanced methods and higher reward opportunities. The skill is not only a practical way to obtain money and items but also plays a significant role in various quests and mini-games.

Getting Started with Thieving

Before diving into the training methods for reaching level 99 Thieving, it's essential to understand the basics of the skill.

Requirements

While there are no specific requirements to start training Thieving, certain quests and achievements can help you gain experience more efficiently. Here are some key prerequisites:

- Quests: Completing quests such as "The Feud" and "Animal Magnetism" can provide experience boosts and unlock new Thieving opportunities.
- Items: Many players find it beneficial to have items like the Ardougne Cloak, which grants bonuses to Thieving and helps with pickpocketing.

Thieving Levels Explained

Thieving is divided into levels, and each level unlocks new methods to train the skill. Here's a brief overview of the main milestones and methods available as you progress:

- Levels 1-5: Pickpocketing Men and Women in Lumbridge.
- Levels 5-20: Stealing from the Bakery in Varrock.
- Levels 20-40: Pickpocketing Guards in Varrock or stealing from the Silk Stall.
- Levels 40-55: Pickpocketing Blackjacking at the Bandit Camp.
- Levels 55-99: Pickpocketing from Master Farmers or the Ardougne Knights.

Best Training Methods for 1 to 99 Thieving

To help you achieve level 99 Thieving, here are the most effective training methods categorized by level ranges.

Levels 1-5: Pickpocketing Men and Women

- Start by pickpocketing Men and Women located around Lumbridge.
- Each successful pickpocket grants 10 experience, and failure will result in a chance of getting caught.
- This method is simple and requires no special items.

Levels 5-20: Stealing from the Bakery Stall

- Move to Varrock and steal from the Bakery Stall.
- Each successful theft gives 15 experience, and you can drop or sell the bread for some extra coins.
- This method is relatively fast and efficient for early levels.

Levels 20-40: Pickpocketing Guards

- At level 20, you can start pickpocketing Guards in Varrock.
- Each successful pickpocket yields 50 experience, making this method significantly faster.
- The guards have a low chance of catching you, especially if you use the Ardougne Cloak.

Levels 40-55: Blackjacking

- Blackjacking is a more advanced form of Thieving, requiring you to knock out and pickpocket NPCs like Bandits.
- This method provides high experience rates but requires some additional preparation, such as having a blackjack.
- You can earn about 120,000 experience per hour with this method.

Levels 55-99: Pickpocketing Master Farmers

- Once you reach level 55, pickpocketing Master Farmers in the Hosidius area becomes the optimal method for training.
- This method is highly efficient, yielding around 60,000 experience per hour.
- Master Farmers also drop valuable seeds that can be sold for a substantial profit.

Alternative Training Methods

While the aforementioned methods are the most efficient, OSRS offers several alternative ways to train Thieving that can be enjoyable and rewarding.

Thieving from Stalls

- Silk Stalls: Located in Ardougne, stealing from these stalls provides a steady experience rate and can yield silk, which sells for a decent price.
- Fruit Stalls: Located in various cities, including Karamja, stealing from these stalls gives experience and provides food items that can be useful for training combat.

Quests for Thieving Experience

Completing certain quests can offer substantial Thieving experience rewards. Here are a few notable quests to consider:

1. The Feud: Grants 2,250 Thieving experience.
2. The Corsair Curse: Provides 7,500 Thieving experience.
3. Plague City: Offers 1,500 Thieving experience and unlocks access to Ardougne.

Tips for Efficient Thieving Training

To maximize your training efficiency and enjoyment while leveling up Thieving, here are some helpful tips:

- Use the Ardougne Cloak: This item provides a significant bonus when pickpocketing and can be acquired through the Ardougne Diary.
- Utilize the "Thieving" skillcape: The skillcape gives a passive experience boost and can help you train faster.
- Stay focused on one method: Sticking to a single method until you reach the next level cap can save time and improve your experience rates.

- Take breaks: Thieving can become monotonous, so taking breaks can help maintain your motivation.

Conclusion

Achieving level 99 Thieving in OSRS is a rewarding accomplishment that opens up a world of opportunities in the game. With the right training methods, tips, and tricks outlined in this comprehensive 1 99 thieving guide, players can efficiently level up their Thieving skill while enjoying the diverse activities Gielinor has to offer. Whether you're pickpocketing in Varrock or stealing from Master Farmers, the journey to level 99 is filled with excitement and adventure. Happy thieving!
