History and Origins of The Phantom of the Opera

The Phantom of the Opera is a musical composed by Andrew Lloyd Webber, based on the 1910 French novel "Le Fantôme de l'Opéra" by Gaston Leroux. Since its original West End debut in 1986 and Broadway opening in 1988, the musical has captivated audiences worldwide with its romantic and mysterious storyline. The tale follows the enigmatic Phantom who haunts the Paris Opera House and his obsession with the young soprano Christine Daaé. The musical's combination of haunting melodies, dramatic narrative, and lavish production values quickly established it as a seminal work in modern musical theatre. Over the years, it has become one of the longest-running and highest-grossing shows in theatrical history.
