The Story of the Two Wolves

Once upon a time, in a small village, there lived an old Cherokee man who was teaching his grandson about life. The boy, curious and eager to learn, asked his grandfather, "Why do people fight and argue so much?"

The old man sat down beside him and said, "Inside each of us, there are two wolves. One wolf is evil; it is anger, envy, sorrow, regret, greed, arrogance, self-pity, guilt, resentment, inferiority, lies, pride, and ego. The other wolf is good; it is joy, peace, love, hope, serenity, humility, kindness, empathy, generosity, truth, compassion, and faith. These two wolves are always at war with each other."

The grandson thought about this for a moment and asked, "Which wolf wins?"

The old Cherokee man replied, "The one you feed."
