Tips for Playing the Song

Whether you are playing on guitar, piano, or another instrument, here are some tips to help you effectively play "Awesome is the Lord Most High."

For Guitarists

1. Strumming Pattern: A common strumming pattern for worship songs is D-D-U-U-D-U (D=down, U=up). Experiment with this pattern to find what fits best with the song's tempo.
2. Dynamics: Start softly during the verses and build up to a powerful strumming during the chorus to create an emotional impact.
3. Practice Transitions: Work on transitioning between the chords smoothly to maintain the flow of the song.

For Pianists

1. Inversions: Use chord inversions to create a fuller sound. For instance, play C in the first inversion (E-G-C) for a different texture.
2. Rhythmic Variations: Experiment with different rhythms in your left hand, such as playing broken chords or arpeggios while maintaining the right-hand melody.
3. Pedal Use: Use the sustain pedal to create a smooth legato effect, which is especially effective in worship settings.
