- Rise of the SS: The SS, under Heinrich Himmler, became increasingly powerful as the SA was dismantled and rival factions were suppressed.
- Suppression of Dissent: The executions created an atmosphere of fear, discouraging further resistance within the military and political spheres.

2. The Resurgence of Military Resistance

Despite the oppressive atmosphere, the deaths of these politicians also galvanized some factions within the military.

- Inspiration for Future Resistance: The courage shown by figures like Stauffenberg inspired later attempts to resist the regime, even as the war drew to a close.
